51. Read the passage and answer the questions: 5x2=10

Speech is a great blessing but it can also be a great curse, for while it helps us to make our intentions and desires known to others, it can also, if we use it carelessly, make our attitude completely misunderstood. A slip of the tongue, the use of an unusual word, or of an ambiguous word, may create an enemy where we had hoped to win a friend. Again different classes of people use different words, and the ordinary speech of an educated man may create the impression to an uneducated listener that he was showing off with his skill: Unwittingly we may use a word which bears a different meaning to our listener from what it does to a man of his own class. Thus speech is not a gift to use lightly without thought, but one which demands careful handling: Only a fool would express himself alike to all kinds and conditions of people and situations.

Have you seen a little dog anywhere about?

A raggy dog, a shaggy dog, who's always looking out
For some fresh mischief which he thinks he really ought to do

He's very likely to do at this minute, biting someone's shoe.

If you see that little dog, his tail up in the air,

A whirly tail, a curly tail, a dog who doesn't care

For any other dog he meets, not even for himself;

Then hide your mats, and put your meat upon the top-most shelf.

If you see a little dog barking at the cars,

A raggy dog, a shaggy dog, with eyes like twinkling stars,

Just let me know, for though he's bad, as bad as he can be,

I wouldn't change the dog for all the treasures of the sea!

-E.Lewis
